

Exhibition Criteria

Updated May 24, 2022

1. The artist must be a member in good standing. Refer to Article III, section 3 of the by-laws:
 - a. “to be a member in good standing”, be current on dues and be active on a committee.
2. Artwork from previous BAA judged shows may not be in another judged show, however the artwork may be exhibited in our other non-judged shows.
3. Wire must be used. Sawtooth hangers or hooks are permissible only on works 8”x10” or smaller. Hanging wire is to be attached in a way that keeps the piece snug to the wall.
4. Artwork must be framed, or gallery wrapped. Paint must be dry. Transparent plastic may be used instead of glass.
5. The artist is responsible for his/her own artwork -- it is not insured.
6. The artist must deliver and pick up their artwork during the stated time frames or make arrangements for someone else to do so for them. Artwork will remain on exhibit until the end of the show.
7. Two (2) BAA artwork identification cards must be attached to the back of your artwork for juried shows and for regular exhibits:
 - a. Your name and phone number
 - b. Title, medium, and price (or NFS).
8. For competitions which are judged shows the artwork must be original. For other exhibits or shows references, (photos, prints, magazines, art books, etc.) may be used. When using references that are not your own, you should change at least 60% of the original image to make it your own. If the artwork is copied, the original artist must be credited by signing the work as follows:

Jane Doe
after Pablo Picasso

9. Judges for BAA bi-annual judged shows in April and October, may not be members of the Bartlett Art Association.

10. The Exhibition Committee can refuse artwork for an exhibit for the following reasons:

- a. The artist is not in good standing with BAA
- b. Artwork has structural malfunctions
- c. Size or weight are more than can be accommodated by the venue
- d. Inappropriate content

11. A $5 fee for each painting entered in BAA judged shows must accompany each piece. This money is used to pay for the judge with any leftover going into the BAA account.

12. Drop off artwork in the staging area but leave the exhibition area so as not to interfere with the Exhibition Committee's work.
